

"Beautiful music, so strangely familiar to me, yet hauntingly new and different. Exquisite. A completely different experience from other meditation music, a level of subtlety that resonates within and enriches the world."

welcome to june...

We wish you a toasty warm, cosy winter! (Unless you are in the northern hemisphere, in which case Maia would happily trade places with you!)

In amongst a flurry of recent activity, we've had a trip to Sydney Mind Body Spirit Festival; Sahayak facilitated a musical alchemy workshop at the annual Manshine Gathering (a three-day event which he relished every moment of) and we've been exploring some lovely new pieces of music that have settled upon us and are happy to join our other songs).

It's a privilege and a joy for us to be invited to perform with Sacred Earth on the Sunshine Coast in early July – we look forward to these very blissful and uplifting nights. (The Gold Coast has been earmarked for a later, yet-to-be-decided date). Details and tickets are available via the link below.

We have some free tickets (and parking) Mind Body Spirit Festival in Melbourne. If you're interested, email us by June 6 and we'll pull names out of a hat and post them out the next day. Good luck!

May your June be in effortless flow...
